

NCCCLRA District III meeting

April 3, 2008 at Wilkes Community College (NCCCLRA conference)

Present:

Michael Rose, director
Donald Forbes, vice director
Pat Leamon, secretary
Ernest Avery, CCLINC rep.
David Wright, CCCLA rep.

Alisha Webb, GTCC
Fannie Dillard, Rowan Cabarrus
Irene Laube, Durham Tech
Jenny Hock, Surry
Julie Humphrey, Durham Tech
Kathy Fountain, Rowan Cabarrus
Mary C. Jones, Piedmont
Toshi Shonek, Durham Tech
Vanessa Nwanze, Piedmont

Agenda:

Elect new officers
Reports from libraries
Next meeting

New officers:

Director: Michael Rose
Vice director: Donald Forbes
Secretary: Julie Humphrey
CCLINC rep: Ernest Avery
CCCLA rep: David Wright

Reports from libraries:

Donald Forbes reported that GTCC has a new fulltime librarian position on the High Point campus. The new librarian there is Anders Selhorst. Also, GTCC will start building a new campus near the airport.

Irene Laube reported that Durham Tech's new campus in Orange County will open on May 2. The small library there will be staffed by a library tech and rotation of librarians.

Piedmont reported that they have volunteered for the Learning Objects Repository.

Surry has started an assessment center for distance education and a viticulture center.

Discussion regarding consortia database subscriptions. We should check with Carolina Consortium before subscribing to see if they have a deal with the vendor. Discussion of budget issues for databases, print periodicals budget, and NC LIVE.

Next meeting: December or January at Piedmont Community College.